

About Pathways.org

Since 1985, Pathways.org has created FREE tools to maximize child development. We strive to empower parents and health professionals with FREE resources on children's motor, sensory, play, and communication development. Pathways.org believes early detection and early intervention are crucial in maximizing a child's potential.

All Pathways.org activities are based upon the expertise of the Pathways.org Medical Roundtable; a board of leading physicians, clinicians, and lay advisors who provide strategic and supportive direction.

Some Pathways.org Activities:

Recognizing Early Motor Delays Course:

- Pathways.org worked in collaboration with the American Academy of Pediatrics to create an online course for continuing medical education credit
