Dear Religious Leader:

Since Pathways.org inaugurated the Inclusion in Worship movement in 1996, more congregations than ever are providing accommodations so that worshippers of all abilities can participate in liturgy, ministry and leadership roles in Chicago area houses of faith.

An integral part of the Inclusion in Worship movement is the annual celebration of Inclusion Awareness Sunday. We are delighted that Eastern Orthodox parishes are joining us in celebrating the gifts received when all may worship together. This Inclusion Awareness Sunday Workbook of planning materials, posted on the Pathways.org website, is provided to encourage your participation.

Thank you for opening hearts, minds and doors to parishioners of all abilities. Our faith communities are strengthened when we come together to meet the needs of our members so that everyone can share their gifts at the altar.

Sincerely,

Shirley W. Ryan
Chairman

INCLUSION AWARENESS SUNDAY ACTIVITIES

Listed below are ideas for your Inclusion Awareness event in the areas of affirmation, communication and accessibility. Use the materials in this workbook to plan your parish celebration.

Affirmation

- Under the direction of your parish priest, form an inclusion team comprised of Philoptochos members and parishioners with disabilities to address inclusion issues.

- Under the direction of your parish priest, select a date and plan a special worship service for Inclusion Awareness Sunday.

- Train teens to serve as greeters, assistants and helpers on Inclusion Awareness Sunday. See ideas in this workbook for involving teens.

- Does your parish include children with intellectual challenges in religious education and worship? Use the St. Stylianos Special Children’s Ministry as a model to begin a religious education program for children of all abilities at your parish.

Communication

- Eight weeks before Inclusion Awareness Sunday, order copies of The Body of Christ: A Place of Welcome for People with Disabilities by Father John Chryssavgis from Light + Life Publishing, 952-925-3888, for distribution on Inclusion Awareness Sunday. This booklet is an important statement of the call for Eastern Orthodox Christians to welcome parishioners of all abilities into full participation in parish life.

- Use respectful language when speaking, preaching or writing about individuals who happen to have disabilities. See Using Appropriate Language in this workbook.
Plan a coffee hour with children’s activities for Inclusion Awareness Sunday that communicate welcome and inclusion for all. See I Am “Thumb” Body and the paper doll activity in this workbook. Invite GOYA (Greek Orthodox Youth of America) and Junior GOYA to assist.

Place access and inclusion information in your bulletin on Inclusion Awareness Sunday and throughout the year. See the sample bulletin article, How You Can Make a Difference and quotes from The Body of Christ: A Place of Welcome for People with Disabilities in this workbook.

Secure a sign language interpreter for Inclusion Awareness Sunday and consider providing this service on a regular basis.

Create a booklet to distribute to parishioners on Inclusion Awareness Sunday. Use the sample booklet in this workbook for ideas.

Send out a press release to local media outlets to publicize your Inclusion Awareness Sunday events. See sample press release in this workbook.

Accessibility

Lower the icons in your church so that parishioners who use wheelchairs can easily venerate them.

Do a walk-through of your facilities before Inclusion Awareness Sunday using the Facilities Survey in this workbook. Note inaccessible areas and announce plans to remove those barriers at your congregation’s Inclusion Awareness Sunday celebration.
Father Henri Nouwen laid the spiritual foundation for the Pathways.org Open Hearts, Open Minds movement with his keynote address The Vulnerable Journey at the 1996 Pathways.org inclusion conference. The icon of the Holy Trinity was selected for the Inclusion Awareness Day prayer card because it is a source of meditation and prayer on the Trinity, hospitality and inclusion. In his book, Behold the Beauty of the Lord: Praying with Icons, Father Nouwen describes the Trinity icon as an invitation to know God, not through our intellect, but through our heart, a more inclusive approach to prayer. He writes, “As we place ourselves in front of the icon in prayer, we come to experience a gentle invitation to participate in the intimate conversation that is taking place among the three divine angels and to join them around the table.” Nouwen says that in gazing on the icon we are beckoned to enter a house of love that “has no boundaries and embraces everyone who wants to dwell there.” The image of the three figures extends beyond the picture to include the viewer. The icon invites each of us to join the three figures to complete the image. We are all welcome to participate. We are all invited to take our place at the Table. We are all included.

*The Vulnerable Journey by Father Henri Nouwen is available on DVD and CD from Pathways.org, 1-800-955-2445.

A PDF of the Inclusion Awareness Day prayer card is available at www.pathways.org. To renew your congregations commitment to welcoming parishioners of all abilities, download, print on card stock and distribute the prayer cards to worshippers on Inclusion Awareness Day.
BULLETIN ARTICLE FOR INCLUSION AWARENESS SUNDAY

The Philoptochos Society of _____ (insert parish name) ______ and Greek Orthodox People with Disabilities Invite you to join our parish for our celebration of Inclusion Awareness Sunday in the Greek Orthodox Metropolis of Chicago (insert date of your celebration)

On _____ (insert date and parish) ___ will join other parishes in Chicago in observing Inclusion Awareness Sunday. The Awareness Day is modeled after the Pathways.org Inclusion in Worship movement which raises awareness to the need for accommodations so that people of all abilities can participate in worship and ministries at their house of worship.

_____ (Insert name of parish) _____ especially welcomes those with disabilities every Sunday and seeks to enable their full participation in the life of the church. By observing Inclusion Awareness Sunday we hope to further educate parishioners about the needs of people with disabilities in our midst, as well as to recognize the tremendous value that they add to our community.

Inclusion Awareness Sunday is an initiative of Philoptochos together with the St. Stylianos Children’s Ministry, a ministry of St. John that Baptist parish, Des Plaines, for children with disabilities and their families.

Contributed by Dr. Antonia Antonakos, Philoptochos President and Eleni Patos, Chairwomen, Inclusion Awareness Sunday, St. John the Baptist Greek Orthodox Church, Des Plaines, IL

HOW YOU CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE

There are many things that you, as an individual, can do to help people with disabilities feel welcome in your house of faith.

1. I will treat ALL people as PEOPLE FIRST – as I would like to be treated.

2. I will SPEAK DIRECTLY to the person with a disability, not only to the nearby family member, companion, interpreter, or the canine companion.

3. I will offer to SHAKE HANDS when introduced to a person with a disability. (Persons with limited hand use or who wear an artificial limb may shake hands. Shaking the left hand is okay, too.)

4. I will place myself at EYE LEVEL, in front, for easy conversation with a person in a wheelchair, with crutches, or with a walking frame.

5. I will OFFER ASSISTANCE AND WAIT until the offer is accepted. I will wait and then ask for instructions.

6. I will be PATIENT AND WAIT for the person with difficulty speaking, rather than speaking for the person. I may help by asking short questions that require short answers, a nod, or a shake of the head.

7. I will see the WHOLENESS OF SPIRIT beneath the surface of someone with a disability and overcome the tendency to turn away or ignore the person.

8. I will TREAT ADULTS with developmental disabilities AS ADULTS, not as children. I will use first names only when using the same familiarity for all persons.

9. I will get the attention of someone who is hearing-impaired by LIGHTLY TAPPING their elbow or shoulder, or by WAVING MY HAND. I will look directly at the person and speak clearly, slowly, and expressively to establish if the person can read my lips.

10. I will guide a person with visual impairments by GIVING VERBAL CLUES to steps, curbs, escalators or doors.
GUIDELINES FOR USHERS AND LAY LEADERS

GENERAL INFORMATION

1. What do you say when you meet a person with a disability? How about “Hello?”
2. Because each person has gifts and abilities, ask a person with a disability to usher, to read, etc.
3. Speak directly to the person with a disability or difference, not only to the family member, companion, interpreter, or canine companion.
4. Ask the person with the disability if you can help. Respect any refusal.
5. Be sensitive to where a person wishes to receive Holy Communion – modify according to needs.
6. A warm smile and friendly conversation are very welcoming.
7. Feel comfortable using words like see, walk, and listen with persons with disabilities.
8. Use people-first language such as “people with disabilities” NOT “the disabled.”
9. Offer large-print prayer books, bulletins, or assistive listening devices.
10. Use the accessibility logo. Include the words “All Are Welcome.”

WELCOMING PARISHIONERS WITH BLINDNESS OR VISION LOSS

1. Identify yourself when you meet the person. Tell the person when you are about to leave.
2. Talk normally, using your customary voice and typical expressions like “See you later.”
3. Offer your arm when assisting; the same way an usher does at a wedding.
4. Give verbal cues such as “We are going through a doorway.” Explain the traffic pattern with clear, calm instructions such as “Go up the center aisle.”
WELCOMING PARISHIONERS WITH MOBILITY DIFFERENCES

1. Speak directly to the person.
2. Offer assistance, but accept a “No, thank you.”
3. Sit down so that you are at eye-level if the conversation will last more than a few minutes.
4. Shake hands or lightly touch a shoulder in the same way you would with others.
5. Keep a person’s wheelchair or walker near the person. A person who uses a chair may be able to walk but still needs the chair.

WELCOMING PARISHIONERS WITH DEAFNESS OR HEARING LOSS

1. Face the person. He/she will appreciate seeing your facial expression and may read your lips. Your face, gestures, and body movements help in understanding.
3. Speak clearly and slowly. Writing may be necessary.

WELCOMING PARISHIONERS WITH SPEECH DIFFERENCES

1. Be patient. Let a person talk at his/her own pace.
2. Remember a person may have communication means other than speech, such as writing.
3. Ask questions that require short answers or a shake of the head. If you cannot understand, rephrase the question.
4. Repeat or paraphrase what was said in order to confirm that you understand.

WELCOMING PARISHIONERS WITH COGNITIVE DIFFERENCES

1. Greet the person and interact normally.
2. Keep things simple and uncomplicated.
3. Treat people equally regardless of their participation level. For example, if a Sunday bulletin is distributed, give to all.

Please duplicate and share with others.
USING APPROPRIATE LANGUAGE

Words, whether spoken or written, are the basic means by which people communicate. Words are powerful tools that can affirm and empower. At the same time, the misuse of words can belittle and demean. Language used to describe people with disabilities often focuses on lack of ability rather than on competency. Don’t reinforce common myths about people with disabilities.

When writing or speaking about people with disabilities, words should be chosen with care in order to promote dignity and a positive image. The following suggestions, adapted from guidelines developed by The Research and Training Center on Independent Living, may assist in this process:

- Make reference to the person first, then the disability. Say “a person with a disability” rather than “a disabled person.”
- If the disability isn’t germane to the story or conversation, don’t mention it.
- A person is not a condition; therefore, avoid describing a person in such a manner. Don’t present someone as an “epileptic.” Rather say “a person with epilepsy.”
- Do not portray successful people with disabilities as superhuman, as this raises expectations that all people with disabilities should reach this level.
- Do not sensationalize a disability by use of such terms as “afflicted with,” “victim of,” “suffers from.”
- Do not use generic labels such as “the disabled.”
- Emphasize abilities, not limitations. Use “walks with crutches” rather than “crippled”.
- Do not use condescending euphemisms. Terms like “handy-capable” and “physically inconvenienced” are considered condescending.
- Do not imply disease. People with disabilities should never be referred to as patients.
- Speak of people with disabilities as active participants in society. They are!

“Welcome one another, as Christ has welcomed you” (Rom. 15:7).

Today we welcome every baptized Orthodox Christian to enrich the community as a whole.

All of us, with and without disability, are invited by God to a full life of faith and ministry, including worship.

Please join us after liturgy... coffee and fellowship, and receive the guide “Body of Christ”, paraphrased in this booklet.
INVOLVING TEENS ON INCLUSION AWARENESS SUNDAY

Contributed by Eleni Patos, Chairwomen, Inclusion Awareness Sunday, St. John the Baptist Greek Orthodox Church, Des Plaines, IL

Sensitivity Training
Set a date for your teen meeting and invite GOYA and Junior GOYA to attend. Use the Guidelines for Ushers and Lay Leaders, How You Can Make a Difference and Disability Language Guidelines in this workbook to instruct teens on proper disability etiquette. Designate which teens will act as greeters at doors to distribute ribbons and booklets, personal attendants for parishioners who need assistance, helpers with children’s activities in the social hall and assistants to distribute The Body of Christ booklets from a table in the social hall.

Making White Ribbons
Ask teens to assemble white ribbons for Inclusion Awareness Sunday. Make enough ribbons for all parishioners to receive one on Inclusion Awareness Sunday.

Materials:
½ inch wide stiff white ribbon
Glue dots
Scissors

Cut a piece of 6 inch long ribbon, cutting ends at an angle. Bend the length of ribbon in half and cross tails forming a loop and secure ends at the center with a glue dot. Place completed ribbons in a basket and assign teens to use glue dots to attach to parishioners as they enter church on Inclusion Awareness Sunday. Teens can also distribute program booklets at the doors of the church.

Assemble Inclusion Awareness Sunday Booklets
Create a booklet using the example on page 15 as a guide or customize the booklet posted on www.pathways.org. Photocopy the booklet and ask teens to assemble and fold booklets. Teens can serve as greeters and distribute the booklets and ribbons on Inclusion Awareness Sunday.
Cut Out Dolls for Inclusion Awareness Sunday Paper Doll Activity

Materials:
Stiff card stock paper, scissors, ball point pens, paper doll templates, hole punch, yarn

Trace paper doll outline onto white cardstock and cut out one paper doll for each child participating. Punch holes in hands of dolls. Cut lengths of yarn long enough to tie dolls together at the hands.
ININVOLVING CHILDREN ON INCLUSION AWARENESS SUNDAY

I AM ‘THUMB’ BODY ACTIVITY

Materials:
Large table
Large pieces of banner paper
Stamp pads in various colors
Black Thin Tipped Felt Markers
Disposable wipes to clean thumbs

Spread the large sheets of banner paper on the table. Write “I Am Thumb Body” in the center of each banner in large letters. Invite children and adults to coat their thumbs/fingers lightly on the stamp pads and press their prints onto the large banner paper to make a head and a body. Use the markers to draw eyes, nose, mouth, hair, arms, legs, clothes etc. on your thumbprint portrait. Sign your name below your portrait. Clean off thumbs with wipes. When each paper is covered with thumbprint people, display the banner for all to see.

PAPER DOLL ACTIVITY

Materials:
Roll of banner art paper
Paper dolls pre-cut and punched by GOYA
Yarn pieces pre-cut by GOYA
Crayons

Set up tables with supplies. Invite children to decorate a pre-cut paper doll of themselves with crayons. String dolls together by inserting yarn into holes in hands of dolls and tying together. Write “We are All Different Yet All Alike in the Eyes of the Lord” in large letters on the banner paper. Attach the yarn joined dolls to the banner and display for all to see.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ACTIVITY

Distribute the booklet The Body of Christ: A Place of Welcome for People with Disabilities by Father John Chryssavgis to all Sunday school teachers. Ask them to read and discuss during Sunday school on Inclusion Awareness Sunday.

CREATING AN ACCESSIBLE FACILITY

Nothing says welcome like an accessible facility: from the parking lot, to the entrance doors, to the worship space, to the washrooms. A walk-through of your property using the following facilities survey can give you an idea of how accessible you are.

Gather a group of interested individuals, including at least one person who uses a wheelchair, and your facilities manager. Photocopy the following Facilities Survey for each group member and place on clipboards. Using a tape measure for accuracy, walk through your campus, answering the questions as you proceed. Afterwards review your findings and draw up a plan to address any access needs. To save time, divide your committee into groups, assign each group different areas to survey and then have groups report back on findings.
FACILITIES SURVEY

Use the following survey to evaluate the accessibility of your campus. At least one person who uses a wheelchair should be part of the survey team. “NO” answers indicate areas which need to be addressed.
