APPLICATION INFORMATION
FOR TEAM W AWARDS FROM PATHWAYS.ORG

This revised and updated information provides definitions of terms and includes useful tips for completing and submitting your application. Please read before you begin your application.

TEAM W is an interfaith program of Pathways.org. TEAM W stands for That Every Ability May Worship. TEAM W provides interfaith educational materials, events, and cash grants to assist worshipping communities to welcome members of all abilities as active participants. TEAM W works to break the unintended cycle of exclusion in worshipping communities, religious schools and faith formation programs so that people of all abilities are offered the same respect and opportunity to participate. Disability differences are welcomed and accommodated so that individuals of all abilities feel a sense of welcome and belonging.

TEAM W promotes accessible, welcoming, faith communities and religious schools/faith formation programs through:

1. Our website featuring interfaith educational materials and videos,
2. The annual TEAM W month in August to raise awareness to the need to educate religious leaders and congregants about how to welcome individuals of all abilities to worship, fellowship, ministries, education and leadership roles,
3. The Different Gifts, Same Spirit lesson plans that teach children how to welcome children of all abilities into their classrooms (available on our website or from Loyola Press),
4. Promoting the establishment of TEAM W teams in faith communities to keep access and inclusion in the forefront and to coordinate efforts to ensure their faith community is accessible and welcoming to individuals of all abilities,
5. The annual TEAM W and Junior (for children)TEAM W Awards grant up to $1,000 to support access and inclusion projects that make it possible for individuals of all abilities to participate in their worshipping community, religious school or faith formation program.

APPLICATION GUIDELINES
All applications, videos and essays must use “people first language.” This means applicants must use words with care to promote dignity and respect and to focus on people first rather than on disabilities. For example, rather than saying, “a wheelchair bound man,” say “a man who uses a wheelchair.” Rather than saying “an epileptic,” say “a man with epilepsy.”

Do not use the word “handicapped.” Instead use “accessible parking,” “accessible seating area,” “accessible washroom.”

Applications that do not use “people first language” or that use the term “handicapped” will not be considered.

Each individual seen in the video or electronic photos must complete the Consent to Use Likeness Form on page 7 of this packet. Completed and signed Consent to Use Likeness forms must be submitted with your application. Videos may be selected by Pathways.org for posting on our website via YouTube. Your electronic photos may be requested for use in press releases or promotional materials.

Applications for TEAM W Awards and Junior TEAM W Awards must be approved by the pastor, rabbi, Imam, school principal or religious education director with their signature.

Projects must be well planned and promote a sense of welcome and belonging for people of all abilities.

Projects should be completed within one year of receiving the grant.

The Application Checklist must be completed and submitted with all required materials. Incomplete applications will NOT be considered for grants.

Organizations receiving a grant may submit another grant request the following year or years provided the new project expands their access or inclusion efforts and provided the Grant Use Report for the previous project has been completed and submitted.

Grants are not made outside the U.S. or for debt reduction, tuition assistance, individual personal assistants or printing costs.

TEAM W and Junior TEAM W Award winners are required to submit a completed Grant Use Report and a follow-up video or essay with attached electronic photos of the completed project indicating how their grant money was used. Follow-up videos may be selected by Pathways.org for posting on our website via YouTube.

Annual deadline for applications is October 1st. Applications may be submitted electronically. All requested materials must be included. Email to friends@Pathways.org. If unable to email, mail hard copies to Pathways.org, 355 E. Erie Street, 10th Floor, Chicago, IL 60611.
